Dr Justin Coulson PhD

We have secured a brilliant speaker for Term One, Dr Justin Coulson. Dr Justin Coulson is one of Australia’s most qualified parenting and wellbeing experts. He is a celebrated author, has a Ph.D. in Psychology and is well known expert in this field. He regularly appears in the media for expert commentary. Justin also lives what he promotes, as the father of six girls ranging from 2 to 16. He is down-to-earth and relatable, not afraid to share his personal experiences and learning.

Pre-Sale tickets will be made available only to parents at APFACTS member schools before they are opened for public release ($25) in Week 4.

The ticket price for APFACTS school members is $20. Simply enter the discount code “Member” when booking your tickets.
